Use Your Words

Lyrics (1)

I've got something I want to say,
I can use my words today!

No need to shout,
no need to hide...

Take a breath
and say what's inside!

I was building on the floor,
Jay reached out and took one more.
"Hey! I needed that blue block!"
I felt upset and wanted to shout.

But I stopped and took a breath,
Then I knew what I could say:

"I'm still using that blue block.
Can I have it back, please?"

Jay looked up and said, "Okay!"
We worked it out the talking way!

Think about
what you want to say.

Speak clearly,
in a kind way.

Say how you feel,
say what you need.

Then listen too —
that's how we speak!

Use your words!
Say what you mean!
Tell me how you're feeling,
tell me what you need!

Use your words!
Clear and kind!
You can say what's happening
inside your heart and mind!

"I feel..."
"I need..."
"Can you help me, please?"

Talk and listen,
you and me!

Use your words!
That's the way
we understand each other
every day!

Use Your Words

Lyrics (2)

I wanted to join a game outside,
But I felt nervous standing by.

I could wait and hope they'd see,
Or use my voice and simply speak:

"Can I play with you today?"

"Sure! Come on!"
I heard them say.

And when I didn't understand
the rules they showed me with a hand.

I asked a question,
they explained,
and soon we all were in the game!

Think about
what you want to say.

Speak clearly,
in a kind way.

Say how you feel,
say what you need.

Then listen too —
that's how we speak!

Use your words!
Say what you mean!
Tell me how you're feeling,
tell me what you need!

Use your words!
Clear and kind!
You can say what's happening
inside your heart and mind!

"I feel..."
"I need..."
"Can you help me, please?"

Talk and listen,
you and me!

Use your words!
That's the way
we understand each other
every day!

Need some help?

ASK FOR IT!

Something bothering you?

SAY IT KINDLY!

Feeling sad?

SAY HOW YOU FEEL!

Don't understand?

ASK A QUESTION!

Someone else is talking?

LISTEN TOO!

Ready to speak?

YES, I AM!

Use your words...

CLEAR AND KIND!

My words can tell you
how I feel.

Use Your Words

Lyrics (3)

My words can tell you
what I need.

My words can ask,
my words can help.

And I can listen
when you speak!

Use your words!
Say what you mean!
Tell me how you're feeling,
tell me what you need!

Use your words!
Clear and kind!
You can say what's happening
inside your heart and mind!

"I feel..."
"I need..."
"Can you help me, please?"

"I don't understand."
"Can you show me?"
"Can I play?"
"Please listen to me."

Use your words!
Listen too!

Good communication
starts with me and you!

Take a breath...
Think what to say...

Speak with kindness...

and listen the same way!

Use your words!
