My Feelings Have a Name

Lyrics (1)

Hey, hey!
How are you feeling today?

Happy?
Sad?
Angry?
Worried?

Every feeling has a name!
Let's find it together!

Sometimes I wake up smiling,
My heart feels light and bright,
I want to laugh and dance around,
Everything feels right!

That's happy, happy,
I know that feeling well,
When something makes me smile,
My face has lots to tell!

Stop for a moment,
Take a little breath,
Listen to your heart,
What is it trying to tell you?

My feelings have a name,
And they're all okay!
Happy, sad, angry,
Worried, excited, yay!

My feelings have a name,
I can say how I feel!
When I name my feelings,
I can understand what's real!

Feel it!
Name it!
Say it out loud!

My feelings have a name!

Sometimes I feel so sad,
I might want to cry,
Maybe something didn't work out,
And I don't know why.

Sad is sad,
And that's okay,
I can talk about my feelings,
And they can change one day.

Lyrics (2)

Sometimes I feel angry,
My body feels so tight,
I can stop and take a breath,
And give myself some time.

Stop for a moment,
Take a little breath,
Listen to your heart,
What is it trying to tell you?

My feelings have a name,
And they're all okay!
Happy, sad, angry,
Worried, excited, yay!

My feelings have a name,
I can say how I feel!
When I name my feelings,
I can understand what's real!

Feel it!
Name it!
Say it out loud!

My feelings have a name!

Sometimes I feel worried,
Like butterflies inside,
I can tell a grown-up,
And I don't have to hide.

Sometimes I feel excited,
I jump and laugh and cheer!
My body feels so full of energy,
Because something fun is near!

Every feeling comes and goes,
Like clouds across the sky,
I can notice how I'm feeling,
And I can always ask, "Why?"

How do you feel?

Happy!

How do you feel?

Sad!

How do you feel?

Angry!

How do you feel?

Worried!

How do you feel?

Excited!

And when I need some quiet...

Calm!

I can breathe...
I can pause...
I can name what I feel!

I don't have to hide it,
I don't have to run,
My feelings are a message,
And knowing them is fun!

My feelings have a name,
And they're all okay!
Happy, sad, angry,
Worried, excited, yay!

Lyrics (3)

My feelings have a name,
I can say how I feel!
When I name my feelings,
I can understand what's real!

Feel it!
Name it!
Breathe and choose!

Every feeling has a message,
And I can listen too!

My feelings have a name!
My feelings have a name!

How do you feel today?

Take a breath...
Think about it...

Name it!

"I'm feeling..."

That's okay!

My feelings have a name.
